

Voir Dire Questions: Toshiba Corp. v. Imation Corp, et al., 09-cv-305-sl

- (1) Statement of the case. This is a civil lawsuit involving patents and recordable DVDs brought by the plaintiff, Toshiba Corporation, against eight corporate defendants: Imation Corporation, Moser Baer India, Ltd.; Glyphics Media, Inc.; CMC Magnetics Corp.; Hotan Corp.; Khypermedia Corp.; Ritek Corp.; and Advanced Media, Inc. Plaintiff claims that certain types of defendants' recordable and rewritable DVDs infringe two of plaintiff's patents. All eight defendants deny that their products infringe either patent, and they also claim that plaintiffs' two patents are invalid and unenforceable.

Have any of you heard of this particular case before today?
